

Town of Lancaster Recreation

Basketball League

March 19, 2013

The Lancaster Recreation Department Basketball League continued the 2012-2013 season with Week 12 postseason action in Girls Bantam & Midget, Boy Midget & Junior League play this past week. The Braves and Grizzlies advance to Championship Game. The results of play for this week are as follows:

Girls Bantam League

Bulldogs 27 vs Bears 17

The Bulldogs upset the first place Bears. The Bulldogs took the lead right from the start and never looked back. The Bulldogs used a balanced offensive out pour. The Bulldogs up ended the Bears 27 to 17. The Bulldogs were lead by a trio of scorers. Madison Maciag had nine points. Stephanie Herrnreiter and Hailey Meegan each scored eight points. Mattea Gill chipped in with two points apiece. Kathryn Weidman led all scorers with 11 points for the Bears. Brooke poured in four points. Abbie Benham added two points.

Spartans 50 vs Huskies 32

The Spartans out dueled the Huskies in an offensive showdown. The Spartans used a 28 first half points to down the Huskies. The Spartans built on their 14 point first half lead to win 50 to 32. The Spartans scoring was led by six different players. Hope Harrington led the way with 14 points. Gabriella Czech and Madison Handley each threw in 10 key points. Wilhemina Weidman added eight points. Grace Jachimiak chipped in with six points. Ashely Skrabski netted two points in the win. The Huskies were led by Claudia Frys and her 16 points. Julia Benham contributed eight points. Laura Walter had six points. Abigail Ceisner scored two points for the Huskies.

Boys Midget League

Grizzlies 34 vs Thunder 32

The Grizzlies are headed to the championship game after downing the Thunder. The Grizzlies used a key free throw by Brandon Netzel late in the game to prevail with the victory. The Grizzlies beat the Thunder 34 to 32. Seven different players contributed in the Grizzlies offensive attack. Jacob Andolina led the way for the Grizzlies with 12 points. Lucas Jachimiak netted eight points. Jacob Sebastian tallied seven points. Conor Mahony, Jarod Rupp and Matthew Jandzinski poured in two points apiece. Brandon Netzel chipped in with a key free throw to clinch the victory. Jason Mansell led the way for the Thunder with 15 points. Maxwell Molino helped out with five points. Joshua Jelonek scored four points. Colin Gasiwicz, Cory Paciorkowski, Joe Elias and Johnny Peresan all had two points in the defeat.

Braves 37 vs Blazers 22

The Braves are head to the championship game after defeating the Blazers. The Braves continued their solid team performance on both sides of the ball. The Braves handed the Blazers a 37 to 22 defeat ending the Blazers season. Owen Adamec 's 11 points along with his stellar defensive play led the Braves. Gianluca Fulciniti helped out the cause with eight points. Josh Conklin netted six points. Dominic Fulciniti scored four points. Jacob Kaska, Nicholas Welden, Ryan Maloney and Will Kocalski all had two points in the victory. Aiden Zerkowski and Andrew Martin led the way for the Blazers with eight points. Justin Hughes chipped in with four points. Brandon Kostek scored two points.

MIDGET GIRLS

Robins 43 Eagles 15

The Robins were all over the Eagles and they pulled off a 43-15 victory. Hanna Josker led the way with 13 points for the Robins. Also in double digits were Molly Mahoney and Paige Genewick each adding 10 points. Melissa Lubey and Irene Handy put in 4 points apiece for the streaking Robins. The Eagles were led by Hanna Wozniak's 7 points while Emily Handy chipped in 4.

JUNIOR BOYS

Sixers 49 Rockets 22

IT'S PLAYOFF TIME! The Sixers rolled through the 1st round of playoffs with an easy 49-22 victory over the Rockets. Joe Biniaszewski had another dominated performance with 32 points and 11 boards. Evan Benz chipped in 6 points while Mason Benz and Joe Andreeson had 4 points apiece. Guard Andrew Helenbrook had another great showing putting in 20 points in his final game of the season for the Rockets.

Wolves 46 Heat 25

At the end of the first half it was as close as could be with the Heat leading 20-19. However, the Wolves went on a 21-2 run to start the second half and ran away with the victory. Leading the charger was Connor Fuller who score 11 of his 15 points in the 2nd half. Kevin Walter was also in double digits with 13. Jacob Calo put in 8 points while Josh Sager and Joe Barberio had 4 points each. For the Heat, guards Troy Gooch (11 points) and John Kisker (8 points) provided the offense. Ryan Mansell had 6 points in the losing effort.

Hawks 53 Raptors 39

The Hawks held off the Raptors 53-39 in a hotly contested matchup. The Raptors poured it on in the 2nd half scoring 26 points but the Hawks stayed one step ahead as they sealed the victory. Balanced scoring from the Hawks bench was key as Brian Jadzinski led with 17 points. Zach Penske was also in double digits with 10 points and 6 assists. Alex Konst dumped in 8 while Jacob Jerebko put in 6. Kyle Backert had 5 points and Glenn Stever chipped in 4. Wesley Watson provided the offense for the Raptors as he scored 15 points in his final game. Colin Reformat had 10 points and 5 assists while Mike Niewiemiński put in 6.

Magic 47 Wizards 28

Upset alert!!! The 6th seeded Magic provided a Cinderella story as they defeated the 3rd seeded Wizards 47-28. Leading the way were guards Tim Molik (11 points) and Johnny Rogowski (10 points). Josh Schaner played another stellar defensive game while chipping in 8 points. Brett Kaska had 6 points while John Ostermeier and Jason Glauser dumped in 4 apiece. The Wizards were led by Most Improved Connor Donhauer and his 10 points. Conor Sullivan had 8 points while Kyle Kindred scored 4 points in the losing effort.